BAUER

Joerg

President GE Hungary

Managing Director GE Hungary Kft

Joerg Bauer was appointed President GE Hungary, effective October 1st 2013, representing all of GE's operations in this country. In addition to the related duties he is one of the Managing Directors of GE Hungary Kft. and serves GE in a European finance management role.

Hungary is an important part of GE's Central and Eastern Europe region. With its 12 manufacturing plants throughout the country, three technology centers and three regional business headquarters GE is an integral part of Hungary's industrial core. GE is also the owner of Budapest Bank, that has increased its financing of the key SME sector against the trend in the last years. GE locally covers a wide range of solutions from light sources to high-tech operations such as servicing aircraft engines or manufacturing turbine parts for energy generation, as well as the development and production of water treatment, innovative light sources and healthcare technologies. 98 percent of GE's industrial production is exported to global customers. GE employs 12,500 people and has 2000+ suppliers in Hungary.

Prior to his current assignment, since 2009, Joerg Bauer worked as GE Healthcare's CFO for Central Europe based in Budaörs. Joerg Bauer joined GE Capital in London 1998 as part of its two-year Financial Management Program, which included rotations in Germany, Austria, the UK and Hungary.

During his professional career, apart from GE, he spent nearly five years between 2000 and 2005 with Audi Hungaria Motor Kft. in Győr, Hungary, where his last role was Director of Finance, Customs and Tax. He later was part of the core team setting up the Audi and Volkswagen regional sales company in Dubai as the local Director Finance and Administration and back in Germany served as Audi's Global head of customs and excise tax, before accepting the role of CFO and CIO Central Europe of Mettler Toledo.

Joerg Bauer has studied in Bonn, Cologne, Oxford and Budapest graduating with a German Master of Arts in Business Administration and a European Management Master (CEMS MiM). He is a trained retail banker and certified coach. In addition to his German mother tongue, he speaks English and Hungarian.

He is married and lives with his Hungarian wife and three young children in Budapest.
